

The Best Places

Who's to say where the best place to live is or where you should take your next assignment. Everyone is different. Traveling is a great way to explore where you might want to live too. Are you wondering where you want to go on your next assignment? I would like to share with you some links that may help you figure out where you want to go and explore. Where are some of the best places to go?

If you want to find a good place based on your individual preference, you can take a survey on www.findyourspot.com that will recommend places based on you are looking for. They not only consider the climate, but also what size towns you like to be in.

Another way to shop around for a place is to compare it to where you are now. How does another place compare in crime, cost of living, and cost of housing compared to where you are now. This gives you are good reference point to start from. You can compare places at <http://money.cnn.com/best/bplive>.

Finally, www.bestplaces.net has lots of helpful information such as articles about different places, hurricane hotspots, where the gas prices are high and more. You can find lots of miscellaneous information. The areas they have chosen right now for the best places to live this year are:

1. Charlottesville, VA
2. Santa Fe, NM
3. San Luis Obispo-Atascadero-Paso Robles, CA
4. Santa Barbara-Santa Maria-Lompoc, CA
5. Honolulu, HI
6. Ann Arbor, MI
7. Atlanta, GA
8. Asheville, NC
9. Reno, NV
10. Corvallis, OR

Wouldn't it be great to check out all these places? As a traveler, you have many opportunities to do and see all the things you ever wanted to. Who knows you may even decide you like a place so much, you stay there.
